

Constellation West to Exhibit at Annual VETS Networking Event

WASHINGTON, June 10, 2015 — Constellation West, a leading provider of mission-critical technology solutions and one of the fastest-growing women-owned, service-disabled veteran-owned government solutions providers in the country, is exhibiting at the 2015 Veteran Entrepreneurship Training Symposium in Norfolk, Virginia, June 9-11.

“As a company, it’s part of our core philosophy to maintain a commitment to support and give back to the veteran community. The annual VETS event is one we look forward to participating in every year to meet with other industry and business leaders and talk with veteran entrepreneurs from across the country,” said Lisa Wolford, president and CEO of Constellation West. “Veterans are an incredible resource for our nation and business communities because of their personal spirit, focus and drive for success, which is either taught or reinforced by our military service training, and absolutely essential characteristics for successful entrepreneurs.”

In addition to Ms. Wolford, Senior Director of Business Development and Program Manager, Steve Schlossberg, will also be representing Constellation West at the event and available for attendees to meet at the company booth.

VETS2015 is designed to bring veterans, business leaders and members of the federal government together to foster business partnership and entrepreneurship. At the event, veterans can network with other small-business owners and participate breakout sessions with experts in the field. The event works in cooperation with the federal government to promote discussions on how to take full advantage of federal mandated contracting opportunities set aside for veteran-owned small businesses.
