

Constellation West CEO Lisa Wolford to Speak at Women as Veteran Entrepreneurs Seminar

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19, 2015 — Lisa Wolford, president and CEO of Constellation West, a leading provider of mission-critical technology solutions and one of the fastest-growing women-owned, service-disabled veteran-owned government solutions providers in the country, will deliver remarks at the 5th Annual Women as Veteran Entrepreneurs Seminar on March 19 at the Women's Memorial in Arlington National Cemetery.

"I am seeing such a wave of strength from and for women veterans that simply did not exist a few years ago," said Wolford. "I am so grateful to see all of the progress that's been made and to the organizations like WAVE who work every day to support women veterans."

Wolford has been a guest speaker at many veteran-focused programs and events, including the Small Business Administration's Boots to Business program, being invited to participate in a workshop session at the White House earlier this year. She has also been honored with awards recognizing her active support of veterans in business, including the Gordon H. Mansfield Veterans Small Business Award from the National Veteran Small Business Coalition in July and being recognized by the Women's Center for Advancement as a distinguished honoree in June.

As part of her personal commitment to veterans, Wolford is on the board of At Ease USA, an organization providing free or reduced-cost PTSD treatment for veterans, and Final Salute, a non-profit created to serve the unique needs of homeless women veterans. Additionally, she also actively mentors service-disabled veteran-owned small businesses, women-owned small businesses, and veteran entrepreneurs.

WAVE is a 501(c)(3) non-profit founded to provide a forum for veteran woman-owned small businesses and to promote their success. The seminar will take place from 8:30 am – 4:30 pm and will discuss opportunities and resources for current veteran woman-owned small businesses.
