Constellation West Appoints Michael Reingruber as Chief Growth Officer

Constellation West continues to strategically invest, innovate, and address complex cybersecurity challenges for its global public sector client base.

Vienna, VA – May 16, 2022. Client/Server Software Solutions, Inc. dba Constellation West announced that Michael Reingruber was named the company's chief growth officer. In this newly created position, Reingruber will lead Constellation West's strategic growth initiatives, reporting directly to President and CEO, Lisa Wolford.

Reingruber's new position was created to capitalize on Constellation West's outstanding reputation within the military and civilian communities and further align capabilities with customer needs.

"I have always admired Lisa Wolford as a leader and entrepreneur. I am incredibly excited to join Constellation West and work side-by-side with her leadership team and meaningfully contribute to achieving its goals," said Reingruber. "It's an honor to join a company with such a strong heritage of commitment to growing opportunities for veterans and making our nation more secure."

Reingruber joins Constellation West from Aurotech where he was an executive vice president and responsible for the firm's revenue growth prior to its recent acquisition by DMI.

He is the author of The Data Modeling Handbook and Reflections from 100 Fly Fisherman, as well as over 50 articles ranging from predictive analytics to database design. He received his Bachelor of Science and Master of Business Administration from the University of Maryland. He currently serves on the advisory board for BCT Partners.
